My name is Smith. The other party members, Frida and Leon, were also new to the Lands Between, and were very nervous. I made sure that the other adventurers (including Frida and Leon) were all in good physical condition. I showed them a map of the area, so that they would know the destinations to meet at the starting point. I explained the landscape, so that everyone would know how to properly move about the area. In short, I prepared everyone thoroughly. The party was my first quest in the Lands Between, and it was time to embark on the journey together. I steeled my resolve. From the site description:"In the Lands Between, a circle of purest light separates the Land of the Gods from the Land of the Dead. Originally, it was an Elden artifact, created by the first Elden, conceived by the Goddesses to separate the Lands Between. However, it's fallen into evil hands, and is presently in the possession of a certain Lord. In the midst of the story that will unite all of the Lands Between, the people of the Lands Between, including yourself, must band together and defeat the Lord of the Darkness. The game will center on up to four characters and will take place in a vast land where players will meet other characters and develop an on-line relationship with them." From the trailer: Please help me name this game? Suggestions are much appreciated. This game looks like an RPG, I'm going with Hollowland That's what I thought. R'el-rondoski 09-03-2013, 07:16 AM Bloody Narwhal? Maybe Narwhal and the Valley of the Drakes? Or is that a weird "City of Thieves" thing you guys have? pikachu999 09-03-2013, 12:11 PM What about Hollowland? I think it's got a cool ring to it. R'el-rondoski 09-03-2013, 01:43 PM hmm.. I used to play Hollowland alot back in the day. It kinda reminded me of Firefly/Rise of the Dragons, just with a medieval feel. Aqua_Sphere 09-03-2013, 02:12 PM Elder Scrolls Online comes to mind. The Elder Scrolls Online: Wetwork. New game, familiar setting... I'd say "Thief" but that'd be a weird western. Aqua_Sphere 09-03-2013, 05:15 PM The Elder Scrolls Online:

What's new:

Manakete Planning to Do Some Serious Changes to Evolve to Current MMO Standards And with the recent change of legal representative, we are told to expect some big changes being made in the next year. -- Kotaku Korea

----- Here's that speech by Tarnith on the official website for Final Fantasy XIV: A Realm Reborn. "Hello everyone! I'm going to ask a question I've been anxious to ask since the day we released the previous version of Final Fantasy XIV. The question is: "Do you feel that the current version of Final Fantasy XIV has improved on the more recent Final Fantasy XIV Zodiac Age?" My answer is: I feel that I couldn't have made Final Fantasy XIV Zodiac Age if it weren't for the reviews and feedback I received from our subscribers and all of you. I was very happy when people spoke about the way they could do more with the game. I felt that I had to put out as much effort as I could to deliver on this feedback. Our main staff members were working hard day and night to make this happen, so I'm confident that the server update will make a positive impression to new players coming in.

----- Change of Lead Studio Developer The official website for Secret of Mana revealed that they have appointed Final Fantasy: Versus developer Robin Kinlan (award winning Studio System Engineer/Final Fantasy VI, and Final Fantasy Tactics) to the position of lead developer. Robin has proved himself to be a talented developer, and we are confident that with his experience, Final Fantasy: Versus will be a wonderful game.

----- Today, Square Enix announced that they are planning to "completely overhaul" Final Fantasy XIV to make it better than ever. This was the same announcement as a year ago, so we can only assume that no new progress has been made. ----- I'm disappointed that we're now into year two, and the only changes we've made to solve FFXIV's major issues have been support services. We've shown that we are capable of improving the game, but only now has it become time for the game to
